Los Altos

The influence of global styling in fashion and interior design has sparked an evolution in the way we approach home furnishings. Blending cultural and design influences from around the world offers a collector's aesthetic that speaks to travel, exotic destinations and a life well-lived. The look is one of curated eclecticism, featuring unique designs, indigenous materials and custom finishes.

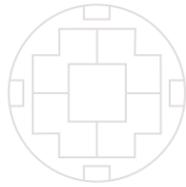

Los Altos is crafted from select Knotty Oak veneers that are gently wire-brushed to enhance the character of the grain, then finished in a semi-transparent natural oak stain and hand-rubbed with a linen-white finishing glaze. The styling conveys a sense of authenticity and casual sophistication. Accent materials include aged bronze metal, travertine, woven Abaca and banana leaf. The look is best described as Global Transitional, offering fresh and relevant designs that celebrate the kinship and diversity of a global community.

BEDROOM

Designs in Los Altos reflect an intriguing balance between the native and the exotic, the primitive and the sophisticated, the mysterious and the familiar. Inspiration was drawn from an eclectic range of indigenous cultures and influences. There is a handcrafted, artisanal quality to the styling and materials that impart one-of-a-kind distinctiveness to the designs.

The distinctive Ivory Coast bed features a contemporary shelter design on the headboard, and braided banana leaf on the headboard, footboard and side rails. Below, the bed is shown with the Perth single dresser, whose strong horizontal lines are accentuated by the custom bar pulls on the drawers. To the right, the bed is shown with the 22-inch wide Reston night table. It features two storage drawers and a finished back, allowing it to be used in the living room as a side table.
